A. ~~(S//NF)~~ On 08 August 2005 the [REDACTED] interviewed ISN [REDACTED] regarding the incident between him and an interrogator in Camp [REDACTED] on Friday, 05 August 2005. ISN [REDACTED] stated that the day prior to the incident an interrogator went to ISN [REDACTED]'s cell. ISN [REDACTED] told the interrogator that he would not talk to him. The interrogator replied to the detainee, saying, "Fuck you." The next day the same interrogator went to ISN [REDACTED] cell, the detainee stated he did not want to talk to the interrogator because it was not his regular Intel Team. ISN [REDACTED] stated that the detainee in charge of his block told him to go to the reservation. ISN [REDACTED] complied and was moved to the Intel room. When the Interrogator, the Interpreter, and another person, identified by the detainee only as a female entered the room, ISN [REDACTED] immediately told them that he would not talk to him. ISN [REDACTED] stated that the interrogator immediately became angry and told the detainee that he was going to talk to him and that if he asked a question ISN [REDACTED] would answer it. ISN [REDACTED] then informed the interrogator that he had the right not to speak with the interrogator and that these "rules" must be applied to all detainees. According to ISN [REDACTED] the Interrogator stated that if he was "going to apply these kinds of rules to apply them to his mother." ISN [REDACTED] continued to explain that while the interrogator was saying that he, the interrogator, was doing so with his finger in ISN [REDACTED] face and yelling. The detainee stated that the interrogator continuously cursed out his mother repeatedly, by calling her a "bitch." ISN [REDACTED] responded by spitting on the interrogator. ISN [REDACTED] stated that after he spit, the interrogator hit him with the refrigerator that was in the Intel room, and then hit him in the face with a chair, resulting in the injury to the detainee's right eye. Furthermore, during the interview ISN [REDACTED] lifted his shirt up and revealed two marks, one on his chest and one on stomach, claiming the refrigerator left those marks. The detainee said that after he was hit with the chair, the guards "attacked" him and put him on the floor very forcefully.
