I, CPT [redacted], WANT TO MAKE THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT UNDER OATH:
To my knowledge the detainees were fed bread and water three times a day. They were large bottles of water and locally made bread. In my opinion this diet was more than enough to maintain the detainee's health. To my knowledge we never had anyone complain about getting enough food or ask for more food.

There was no way for [redacted] or any indigenous personnel to gain unaccompanied access to detainees. The detainees were cuffed and chained to the floor, the room they were in was locked, and there was a USSF guard there responsible for guarding the detention facility 24/7. It was strictly prohibited for any indigenous personnel to be in that facility with the exception of the interpreters. The guard on watch was in control of the keys to the chains and SFC [redacted] was in charge of knowing where those keys were and who had possession of them. Each one of my men knew that indigenous personnel weren't allowed access to the detainees, they wouldn't of handed the keys to [redacted] and did not have access to the keys to that detention facility. Guards were chosen based on who was not conducting a mission that day or whose collar that particular individual might have been.

SSG [redacted] and myself went to the [redacted] and talked to the interrogator that was responsible for [redacted] called us up there to clear up some questions based on what [redacted] had happened to him. [redacted] did not make any allegations until after he was in detention at the [redacted] for a number of days.

When that door (where the stick and wires was found) was opened, there were cobwebs galore and about six months of dust on all that trash in there. That area was not part of the detention facility. In the six months that I was at that compound, the only time I personally saw that door open was when we cut the padlock off under your (b)(3)(c) direction.

Under the advisement of the JAG officers [redacted] we put the stick and wires in a garbage bag and stuck them in the first room when you go in the entrance of the [redacted]. I don't know if they were there when we left.
