2. In the letter Mr [REDACTED] wrote, he reported after he was detained at Camp Cropper, Baghdad, IZ, on 28 May 04, he was taken from Camp Cropper to an unknown location, during the beginning of Jun 04, where he was abused by several different individuals, whom used several different techniques to abuse him. He related his abuse took place for about ten days after which he was returned to Camp Cropper. He related after he was returned to Camp Cropper he received medical attention for the injuries he received while being abused. (See translated copy of letter written by Mr [REDACTED] for details)

3. On 23 Aug 04, this office interviewed Mr [REDACTED] in reference to his allegations of abuse. Mr [REDACTED] reiterated verbatim the translated letter provided to this office by the 22nd MP BN (CID). Mr [REDACTED] related prior to being detainee at Camp Cropper, Baghdad, IZ, he was working for the CIA, and was providing the CIA with information about his former intelligence job. Mr [REDACTED] related while he was being questioned and beaten he knew he was near the airport (possibly Baghdad International Airport, Baghdad, IZ, a location which is also utilized by U.S. Coalition Forces for military activities, and is near Camp Cropper), because the entire time he could hear airplanes. He also related while he was being beaten he could hear other people that sounded like they were being beaten, because he heard other people screaming and yelling the entire time he was being questioned and beaten. Mr [REDACTED] was unable to provide any additional information other than what he had already related in the letter he wrote.
